unlock human potential

An amazing adventure to escape from a virtual world. Armed with an "Action Pack" with vital tools, you will have to make your way with your team through a series of game sectors and virtual checkpoints. Each sector is deceptively designed to challenge team dynamics and stimulate the ability to communicate effectively while on the run. As you and your team race through real locations to GPS-triggered checkpoints, more riddles and hidden checkpoints are revealed to you to get out of the maze. Every decision made has consequences, opening secret alternative paths with "shortcuts" for the astute and "cruel detours" for the less fortunate!
